CAUX FORUM

Caux, Switzerland
Summer 2019

Each year, in a safe space of trust, care, solidarity and respect, around 1,500 participants from civil society, government and business meet in a true diversity of ages, genders, cultures, sectors and beliefs which builds bridges across cultural, social and ethnic divides.

STORYTELLING

SERVING
THE COMMUNITY

The Caux Palace, a former Belle-Époque Grand Hotel overlooking Lake Geneva and the Alps, provides a unique and inspiring setting.

A visit to Caux is about unlocking one's potential: Caux encourages individuals, groups and organizations to reflect on their roles, explore their resources, and connect with their responsibilities as changemakers, on the principle that everyone can make a difference.
