

General Terms and Conditions governing the attendance of the Caux Forum, Caux Programmes or Caux Events

The Caux Forum, Caux Programmes and Caux Events¹ taking place in Caux, Switzerland are all hosted and (co-) organized by the CAUX–Initiatives of Change Foundation (CAUX-IofC), based and registered in Switzerland. The CAUX–Initiatives of Change Foundation is therefore the main contact and responsible body for legal and organizational issues.

These General Terms and Conditions are valid for all attendees registered for any conference, programme or event taking place during the Caux Forum season in Caux, Switzerland. Any person, delegate, representative, speaker, Caux Artist, Caux Scholar, exhibitor, student, programme participant, volunteer, intern, Foundation staff member, organizer, or day visitor will be considered an attendee.

For any questions regarding this document, a proposed reservation or your stay in Caux, please contact our Reservations Department:

reservation@caux.ch / +41 41 310 12 61 (during conference season: +41 21 962 91 11)

Registration

For various organizational reasons, it is important that every person intending to come to Caux (a “prospective attendee”) registers beforehand.

All prospective attendees must register via the Reservations Department.

Registrations should be made via the online registration form but are also accepted in paper form sent to the Reservations Department, or scanned via email to reservation@caux.ch.

Please contact the Reservations Department if you encounter problems with the online form or if you wish to receive a printed version. Should the maximum attendee capacity be reached, the organizers and the CAUX–Initiatives of Change Foundation reserve the right to refuse any additional application for registration, in principle on a “first-come, first-served” basis.

Preparatory step (for Programmes only)

Prior to registering for a Caux Training Programme:

Are listed under “Caux Training Programmes” :

- the “Caux Peacebuilding and Leadership Programme”
- the “Caux Scholars Program” and
- the “Caux Artists Program”.

For all these Programmes, there is a first selective application process specific to each Programme (please see Programme’s specifications for more information). Only selected applicants can then follow the registration process described above.

Hence, prior to registering for one of the above mentioned Programmes, you must have submitted your application to the Programme and the application process must be successfully completed.

It is only once you have received the official notice of your acceptance to a Programme that registration can proceed via the online registration form. Initial Programme applications cannot be received through the registration form. An application for a Programme presented via the registration form will not be processed. The CAUX-Initiatives of Change Foundation does not incur any liability for your failure to be considered for a Programme if you do not submit your application in due course and following the proper procedure.

For all prospective attendees: Letter of Confirmation

For online registrations: after having completed the online registration process and filled out all the mandatory fields on the registration form, an automated e-mail will be sent to you to acknowledge receipt of the registration application. Please note that the said e-mail is not a confirmation of your registration.

For online and paper registrations: the Reservations Team will be in contact with the prospective attendee within 7 days of receiving the completed registration form. In case of special financial or visa issues, the Reservations Team might require more time to process all the necessary documents. Your stay and participation is only confirmed once you've received a Letter of Confirmation from the Reservations Team.

Visa requirements

Prospective attendees who require an entry visa for Switzerland must allow sufficient time for the visa application procedure. They should contact the nearest swiss embassy or consulate before planning their trip to learn about the requirements.

As a visa request can only be submitted 3 months before travelling and can take up to 8 weeks, we strongly recommend applying for a visa as early as possible and suggest a careful study of the visa requirements with the relevant embassy or consulate. Missing documents can be a ground for visa refusal. Please visit <https://www.eda.admin.ch/eda/en/home.html> for more information on the visa application procedure and process.

We kindly ask every prospective attendee requiring a visa to mention this in the registration form and, in addition, to fill out the following document: <Visa application> and to send it to the Reservations Team with the filled-out registration form. This document is important for the Reservations Team to evaluate your reservation and provide the best support possible for your visa application. The Reservations Team will have the discretion to not accept a reservation should any information be missing or should it be too late for a visa application to be processed in time. The visa application is the sole responsibility of the prospective attendee. The Reservations Team will issue necessary documents such as the "Invitation Letter" and the "Hotel Confirmation Letter". Travel insurance and all other necessary documents must be brought to the interview at the relevant embassy/consulate by the prospective attendee including the above- mentioned documents issued by the CAUX-Initiatives of Change Foundation. The Reservations Team does not contact the embassy/consulate on your behalf for an appointment, but it will send a copy of the "Invitation Letter" and the "Hotel Confirmation Letter" to the embassy/ consulate to prove authenticity. You will still need to present those documents yourself in your visa application.

Please inform the Reservations Team as soon as your visa request is granted or refused. It is important, for organizational reasons and in order to support the prospective attendee, that the Reservations Team be informed regularly on the status of the visa process.

Selection Process

Every person is entitled to register for the Caux Forum and open events. The CAUX-lofC Foundation reserves the right to refuse applications of people needing a visa who are unable to provide the necessary references and documents in order to prevent misuse of the visa invitation letter. The registration fee will not be refunded.

Forum Fees

The current Forum fees are listed here and are effective as such.

The fee and total amount shown at the end of the online registration form do not constitute a binding quote and may be adapted by the Reservations Team in the course of its review and validation of the registration, in case of a mistake in the fee selection by the prospective attendee. Only the confirmed fee and total sum stated in the Letter of Confirmation are binding.

To benefit from the subsidized student fee (ages 26 to 35), a prospective attendee must prove his/her student status by providing a valid student card or a proof of enrollment from his/her University. If proof of student status cannot be provided, the standard rate applies.

The fees are not calculated per room but per bed and therefore participants may be asked to share a room with another participant. A single room can only be guaranteed with the Full Premium fee of CHF 220.-.

Cancellation Policy

Since cancellations have a considerable impact on the organization of the Forum, its programmes and events, it is very important to inform the Reservations Team as early as possible about your cancellation by email.

Registration fee: The registration fee must be paid beforehand and is in general non-refundable*.

Early Bird: The Early Bird special must be paid beforehand and is in general non-refundable*.

General cancellation policy (does not include the registration fee and the early bird specials):

Reservations cancelled 14 days or more prior to the date of arrival will be reimbursed. The CAUX- lofC Foundation will reimburse the amount you have paid, minus the bank fees and transfer costs charged during the payment process. Foreign exchange losses incurred in the process are not the responsibility of the CAUX-lofC Foundation.

Reservations cancelled 2 to 13 days prior to the date of arrival will incur a 2 night charge.

Reservations cancelled 1 day prior to the date of arrival, on the date of arrival or if participants arrive late for their stay, 100% of their stay will be charged. This also includes modifications while in Caux that result in an earlier departure than the confirmed reservation.

will only be refunded under certain circumstances such as death in the family and war situation.*

Confirmation> and fill it out as indicated. Please note that this is not applicable for attendees of any of the Caux Programmes.

If you wish to attend the Caux Forum but are not able to pay the full fee, you may fill out this document: Fee Reduction Request to apply for a lower fee. The CAUX–Initiatives of Change Foundation may be able to lower the rate, or to assist in finding sponsorship. Each case will be treated individually and obviously no guarantee is given that financial support may be obtained, respectively that the rate will be lowered.

Methods of Payment

Payments can be made before your arrival at the Caux Conference Centre through Bank Transfer (see account information below) or through PayPal with all major credit and debit cards. All payments prior to your arrival should be made in Swiss Francs (CHF).

Payment is also accepted upon your arrival at the Caux Conference Centre (except for Early Bird Specials and Registration fee) at the designated Cash Desk. All major credit and debit cards are accepted as well as cash payments in Swiss Francs, Euros or US Dollars.

The Early Bird special can only be paid through PayPal or Bank transfer prior to your arrival in Caux. The said discount is revoked if full payment has not been received within 2 weeks of receipt of the Letter of Confirmation.

Film, Photo and Video/Audio Recordings, Press, Social Media during the Conference, Programme or Event:

By registering to Caux Forum events or any other event organized by the CAUX-Initiatives of Change Foundation, you consent to the use and distribution by the Foundation and its partners of your image, likeness or voice for informational, publicity, promotional and/or reporting purposes in print or electronic communications media.

If you do not wish images of yourself or records of your voice to be published/used, you may opt out by contacting the Communications Team in person during your stay at the Caux Palace or by email at: comms@caux.ch

Attendees may take and share their own photographs for private use as long as not asked otherwise by the organizers and as long as the attendees comply with some basic rules of respect towards the subjects photographed.

CAUX FORUM 2017

Caux Palace - Conference and Seminar Centre
Rue du Panorama 2, 1824 Caux, Switzerland
www.caux.ch / info@caux.ch

Participants should not take photographs in such a way as to hide from the subject that is being photographed. If the subject does not agree to be photographed, respect their will. Photography/recording should be treated like other potentially harassing interpersonal interactions, hence, when one person in the interaction says “stop” or “leave me alone” or words to that effect, the interaction must end. In such case, attendees should not attempt to photograph that individual again. Lastly, the subject may inspect the photo/recording at any time and, if requested, the photograph or footage, etc as the case may be must be immediately deleted.

For any press coverage, photo/film, video or audio recording for public use, a media release form must be filled out for approval. Please contact the communications team for further information.

Official pictures are taken by the CAUX-lofC Communications Team and they will be made available on the Foundation’s flickr account. The Communications Team will not share all of its photographs with individual attendees.

The CAUX-lofC Foundation reserves the right to ask any attendee to remove any social media posts that would not comply with the Foundation’s policy.

Data Protection and Use of Contact Details

Upon registration and by accepting these Terms and Conditions, the prospective attendee authorizes the CAUX – Initiatives of Change Foundation to use his/her personal data as stated in the registration form to stay in contact with the prospective attendee regarding the registration process, the event, programme or conference selected and the stay. The data will also be used to inform the organizing team of the conference, programme about their attendees. Furthermore, your data may be used for statistical analyses but, to that end, they will be anonymized. All data will be treated confidentially and will not be sold or transferred to any third parties outside the Initiatives of Change (lofC) network, which consists of all members of Initiatives of Change International cited here: <http://www.iofc.org/about>.

Unless explicitly indicated otherwise by you via the registration form, the CAUX–Initiatives of Change Foundation and the incorporated local lofC organization of the country of your residence may use your contact details after the attended Conference, Programme or Event for the purpose of communicating with you, such as for sending you, by e-mail only, our newsletter and conference report, and to inform you about upcoming events. You will be provided options for the opting out of receiving such e-mail communications.

General disclaimer on data protection

Our server and network are protected by firewalls against unauthorized access.

However, there are breaches of privacy and data integrity risks involved with any use of the Internet. The CAUX–Initiatives of Change Foundation cannot be held liable regarding the integrity and safety of data transmitted through the Internet, nor may it be held liable in the event of a virus, Trojan horse, etc. in your e-mail.

Disclaimer for liability due to incidents or accidents

The CAUX- Initiatives of Change Foundation may only be liable for any incidents or accidents occurring to attendees during the Caux Forum, programmes or events to the extent there is a legal liability and to the extent covered by the relevant insurance.

Modification of the conference, Programme or Event

The CAUX-Initiatives of Change Foundation and the conference, programme or event organizers reserve their right to modify the programme, which is published as an indication only at their discretion. No refund may be requested because of a change of programme, theme, speaker, etc.

Right to expel

Should an attendee not abide to these Terms and Condition or show any form of disrespect, the CAUX-Initiatives of Change Foundation reserves the right to expel that attendee and set an unlimited duration to that decision. This right is exercised at the discretion of the Conference Manager.

Law and jurisdiction clause

All attendees and staff are subject to Swiss law and jurisdiction while in Caux. Non-compliance with the law while on the premises will result in the involvement of the relevant law enforcement agency.

The views expressed by any forum, conference, programme or event attendee, are not necessarily those of the Foundation. All attendees are solely responsible for the content of their presentations, interventions and statements.
